

CHATTER BOX 2019

Individual Therapy

To promote the development of speech, understanding language, talking skills, interaction skills, play skills, attention and listening skills.

394 sessions delivered to 81 children

Paired Therapy

Speech & language therapy to 2 children presenting with similar needs and goals.

3 sessions to 2 children

Floor Time Joint SLT & OT

Interdisciplinary approach to develop the relationship between affect, sensory processing & communication

3 sessions to 5 children

Narrative

To improve and enhance the language skills and conversations skills required for telling stories or relaying information

12 sessions to 7 children

Stepping Stones

Focuses on practical strategies for supporting early interaction skills together with early speech and language skills

12 sessions to 12 children

Teens Joint SLT & OT

To develop and enhance essential communication skills and everyday life skills in preparation for leaving school. In addition, to improving and developing social skills required to actively interact with peers, family, and wider community

34 sessions to 21 teens

Lámh Workshop

To teach parents and grandparents about Lámh and how to use it successfully

12 parents attended

Lámh Sibling Workshop

To learn new Lámh signs to use with their sibling and to learn a little bit about why Lámh is used and have a chance to practise signs through games and fun activities

10 siblings attended

Other Support Services

96 OT & SLT Sessions were provided to 21 children attending our North Side Therapy Programme (September to December 2019)

69 children attend our Easter, Summer & School Readiness workshops

10 School Visits undertaken

11 Parents attend a 10-week Parent Plus course on "Special Needs programme for parents of adolescents and young adults with an Intellectual Disability"